

Property Waiver and Content Restriction Advisory

Thank you for your order of your Allied Waste temporary waste container. Please review the following information for important details regarding this service. This form must be signed and returned to Allied Waste prior to delivery of your container.

Damage to Property: Customer agrees that Allied Waste shall not be responsible for any damages to PAVEMENT, CURBING, DRIVING SURFACE, SPRINKLER SYSTEMS OR GRASS resulting from its trucks servicing an agreed upon designated refuse or collection area. Customer assumes responsibility for any damage, from minor to severe, that may occur due to the size and weight of the vehicle, but not due to negligence or careless driving.

Waste Materials/Restrictions: The waste material to be collected and disposed of by Allied Waste cannot contain any radioactive, volatile, highly flammable, explosive, toxic or hazardous material, appliances, televisions, electronic items, tires, fluorescent bulbs, nor railroad ties.

All containers requested for disposal of construction / demolition materials must be absolutely free of any non-construction or non-demolition material. This includes but not limited to furniture, general household trash, cardboard, clothing, asbestos, newspaper, yard waste, fluorescent bulbs, or plastic. If any of these items are found in construction / demolition container(s), the customer will be charged additional fees or the container may be left on the premises.

Yard waste cannot be disposed of in any container(s).

Liability for Equipment: Customer agrees that he/she has control and responsibility of the container and its contents. Therefore, Allied Waste is in NO WAY RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY AND ALL CLAIMS resulting from the use or storage of the container(s).

Important Loading Instructions: Load container no higher than the top and with nothing hanging over the side. As a guide, loading the container to water-level full will avoid most service issues. Ensure all doors and latches are closed and secured prior to using.

I understand and agree to the above information.
